Title: Unsatisfying sex life? Check this out...

Body:

Fun fact, over 34% of women would rate their sex life as "unsatisfying".

Let's go even further:

27% of women always orgasm during sex, while 62% of women always orgasm during masterbaition.

See anything wrong here?

Hey, I'm Jess from Koawas.

AKA, the owner of an online sex shop.

I know, I know, I'm a total stranger.

But it's time women start taking satisfaction into their own hands.

What's wrong with having a little pleasure in life?

If you ask me, nothing at all.

I put together a little "pleasure pack" just for you.

Now, I know I'm a total stranger, and I wanted to get off on the right foot, so...

I'd like to gift you one of my favorite vibes for a grand total of zero dollars, you just have to pay shipping.

Trust me, this thing packs a punch and will get your legs shakin' just like they should.

Title: The story of an ex-mormons sex life

Body:

Hey, Jess @ Koawas here again.

Long time no see.

For being the owner of a sex store, I grew up kind of bland.

Like, more bland than unseasoned broccoli.

I was actually born a mormon.

(Shocker, huh?)

If you're familiar, the process is more or less to grow up super sheltered, get married super young to someone you hardly like, have kids, and live an incredibly boring life.

So, yeah, I followed what I was born into.

Got married super young, lived for everyone else but myself.

Luckily I never had any kids with the man I married, but I was with him for 4 very long years.

In those 4 years I quite literally never had a single orgasm.

I don't think he knew any other positions other than missionary either (lmao).

It was only once I became single again and got distant from the mormon lifestyle that I realized how much I was missing out on.

You know:

Having freedom instead of being someone's object.

Being able to do what I actually wanted.

I went pretty wild having my freedom.

Plus:

Actually being able to orgasm, which you know... it's pretty great.

It was pretty much a sin to do anything sexually other than satisfying your husband in the mormon culture.

Bias aside (because I know I own a sex shop)...

When I got my first vibe, my life quite literally changed.

It puts the freedom of pleasure into your own hands.

I'd like to put that pleasure into your hands for free.

All you gotta' do is just pay shipping.

Sounds cool?

Title: Why being a woman sucks...

Body:

Being a woman sucks sometimes.

We're born into a society that tells us we're basically under our fathers control until we're 18, then we're supposed to get married to another man and be more or less under their control.

How come we can't have our own control?

Hey there, it's Jess from Koawas again.

I turned 45 last year.

Sometimes I wish I could go back to past me and give her advice.

You know, like:

- You're your own person.
- You're not a slut for having sex.
- You don't need to rely on men.

And so on.

That's a big part of the reason I started Koawas.

It's about more than being a "sex shop", it's about creating a movement to liberate women.

To turn around society's standards, or to at least make women stop believing in them.

There's nothing wrong with having lots of sex.

There's nothing wrong with actually orgasming.

(And you definitely don't have to put up with a selfish partner.)
Anyways, if you relate to everything I just said..

Then, I'd like to introduce you to the world of Koawas.

For starters, I'd like to give you one of my favorite vibes for free.

It's the creme de la creme, no funny business.

All you have to do is just pay shipping.

Sounds good?
